Cervical screening, privacy and interpreters: how to prepare for the appointment

A practical AWWN guide with matching symbols, quick actions and official links.

Know what the appointment is for

Read the NHS screening information before you decide or attend.

Ask for privacy

You can ask to speak privately and explain what you do or do not want shared.

Request language support early

Ask for interpreting or accessible information before the appointment.

Prepare your questions

Write down worries about modesty, pain, results or who will be in the room.

Save contact details

Keep GP surgery or clinic details somewhere private.

Choose what feels safe

Seek trusted advice and take time to understand choices and limits.

Use this page: start at the top-left card, then keep the source links for when you need the official route.
